SECOND FEDERATION CARNIVAL
ALBERT PARK, MELBOURNE, VICTORIA
SATURDAY 15 MAY 1971

---

The Alexander Cup was contested over 30km, rather than the usual 20km. In a surprsie result, Victoria was relegated to third place in the coveted Teams competition, when 3 of its Number 1 team failed to finish – Bob Gardiner, Robin Wood and Andrew Jamieson. The only walkers to finish from that team were Graeme Nicholls (2nd) and Ted Allsopp (5th).

The NSW Race Walker magazine reported the race as follows:

Peter Fullager (SA) showed he meant business by leading all the way in winning easily in 2:27:36. At no stage in the race was he under any sort of pressure. The Victorian 'rejects' fired in an all or none effort to show up their selectors. Justin Coxhead, Ian Henderson and Dave Black all raced far better than their previous form. With the right men in their tea it will be impossible for any state to even think of beating them in Canberra.

The Lorna Carrington Cup has never left NSW and their walking club brought a big team of 15 girls to Melbourne to ensure they won it once again. Well, that they did but only by one point, with national champion Di Behan and Bev Wilkins leading the way. While neither of them could challenge Lillian Harpur (SA) who won as she liked with 15:05, their second and third positions clinched it for the Cup holders. The Victorian team of Meagen Pye, Ann Williams and Sharon Clencie walked well to nearly snatch the Cup from the favourites.

Harpur's 15:05 actually bettered Di Behan's previous Australian best for the distance. The SA walker has been in the sport for less than a year and must have a bright future.

While Victoria missed out on the Alexander Cup and the Carrington Shield, they made no mistakes in the Jubilee Shield, taking the first 3 places, with Russell Miller, Paul Nugent and Neil Croker all well ahead of the rest of the field. Yet astonishingly, no Victorians had contested the National track titles that summer.
